

Let's Talk Turkey

A recent census reported that 2,300 men, women and children experience homelessness in Sacramento County.

Many more live in poverty.

While turkeys are usually available for bargain prices each fall, these traditional centerpieces of holiday meals remain out of reach for many due to financial and/or transportation constraints.

But with your help, we can restore the simple joy a modest feast can bring.

Volunteers of America Ninth Annual Turkey Drive

November 1-24, 2011

Donations of fresh and frozen turkeys for our homeless and low-income clients will be accepted from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily at our Central Kitchen, 700 North Fifth St., Sacramento; and at the Mather Community Campus kitchen, 3587 Bleckely St., Mather.
